To whom it may concern,

On April 9th 2019 Mr. Roberto Correa enrolled here at Boston ASAP into our drug and alcohol program. Our program meets once a week on Thursdays following a drug evaluation right after. Roberto is aware if he misses one class, or fails a drug evaluation he fails the program and will have to enroll again, after two failed enrollments he can't enroll with us again for another 6 months. If you have any questions and concerns please feel free to give me a call at 617-981-2431

To whom it may concern,

My name is Sandra Rosa the mother of Roberto Correa's son Robert Zane Correa.

I am writing on behalf of Roberto Correa. Roberto and I have a son who is 9 years old. He has proven to be a great and responsible father to our son. He is a dedicated and reliable father. Roberto picks his son up from school on time, does homework with his son, attends his soccer games, and also his Taekwondo classes.

Our son share a healthy bond with his father. I honestly can't imagine one without the other. He provides the support and guidance of a good father. He is great father and our son adores him.

Sincerely Yours,

Sandra Rosa

To Whom This May Concern,

I am writing on behalf of my roommate Roberto Correa. Roberto and I did not know each other in the past but from the time he moved in, he has been nothing but an amazing roommate to me. He helps out around the house and has never been late with payment. He is respectful and personable. I enjoy having Roberto as a roommate.

Sincerely,

To Honorable Judge William E. Smith,

My name is Ara Tchaprazian, I am Roberto Correa's supervisor. He has been working under my supervision ever since his release. He is a very hard worker, Dependable and never late. He is the best I've ever seen him, and i have known him for quite sometime now. I just wanted to write something on his behalf, because we really need him here. He is great with the customers and gets a lot done for the company. It would really be a loss to lose him.

sincerely,

Ara Tchaprazian

To Honorable Judge William E. Smith,

My name is Roberto Correa. I want you to know that ever since I was released, I've been really trying to get myself in order. For the first time in my life I feel like I've gotten control of things in a positive way.

I have two jobs, one full time and one part time. My days are spent in a positive environment and I'm around nothing but positive people. Other than work I have been taking substance abuse class once a week, which is very strict and I am taking very seriously. I've been in class since april with no incidents.

I have been able to get back into my children's lives and have enjoyed spending time with them. I'm especially active in my youngest son's life, I pick him up from school everyday and get him to his activities, such as soccer practice and karate class. His mother and I communicate well and she depends on me now to be there. It is important for me to continue to be there for them and for them to know that I am reliable.

For the first time in my life, things are going well and I have a positive outlook on life. The only situation that weighs heavy on my mind is the one that I put myself in due to the addiction I picked up in the prison. There is no excuse for what I've done but I can honestly say that I'm learning from it everyday. I'm asking you, Your Honor, for any punishment except prison. I will lose everything I have going for me and it would be very difficult to get myself back to the place I am in. I will lose both my jobs, my housing, and my kids will lose out their father. I apologize to the court and everyone I've affected.

Sincerely,

Roberto Correa
